We embrace each Wedding as a bespoke celebration.

Thank you for your interest in The Alma Inn at Laneshawbridge for the most special of days, your upcoming wedding. Over the years, we have been lucky to host many great weddings here at The Alma; we understand the details that make all the difference to creating an amazing day. It is our privilege to take care of you and your guests, to ensure your day is exactly as you imagine, the most memorable experience to cherish dearly.

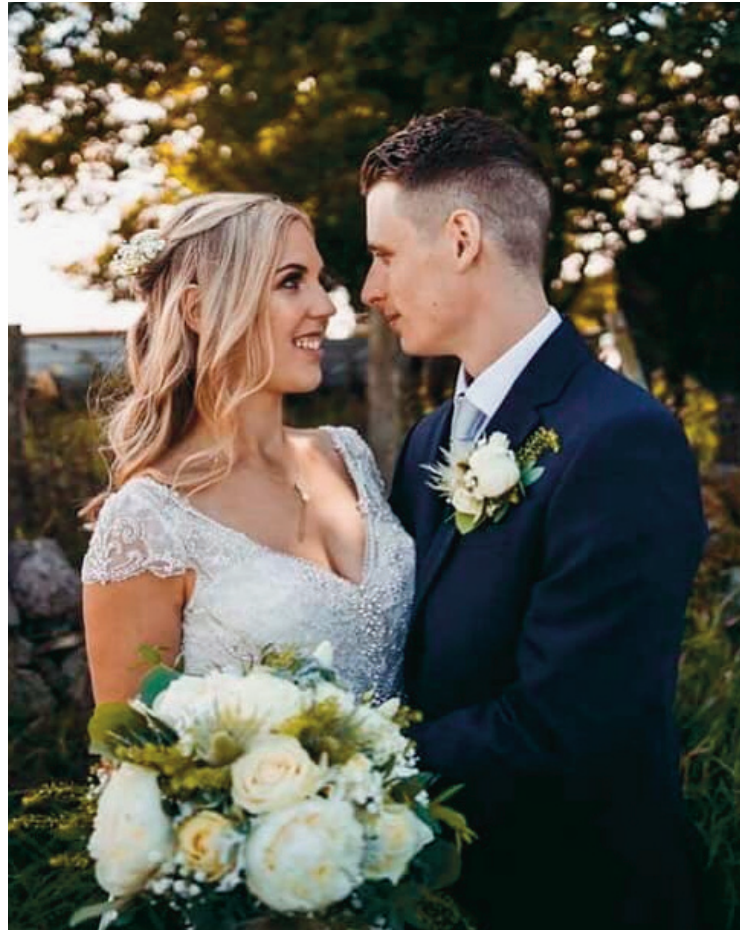

Our historic coaching inn, located on the Lancashire-Yorkshire border, overlooks beautiful moorland views which make the perfect backdrop for wedding photography. Mirroring the outdoors is an equally stunning interior with stone floors, original beams, roaring fires, the delicate smell of fresh flowers and intimate mood lighting. We cater for weddings small and large, with a maximum capacity of 120 day guests and 200 evening guests.

You can enjoy your day from start to finish with us. We are licensed to hold civil ceremonies and have 9 elegant country guests bedrooms including the luxury honeymoon suite. We'd be delighted to give you a tour of the rooms as part of your consultation.

We take pride in our food here at The Alma, we use fantastic local produce and cook everything in house, fresh for your special day. The menus contain dishes that we know to work well for celebrations, they should offer something for everyone.

We have a team of valued and trusted suppliers we have worked with many times before, from pianists to photographers. You are of course free to book anyone of your choice for these services.

Finally, congratulations from the team on your upcoming wedding. Here at The Alma Inn, we embrace each wedding as a bespoke celebration, offering you our personal assurance that we will work hard to exceed your expectations.

Civil Ceremonies

The Alma Inn is licensed to hold civil ceremonies in our Garden Room.

We suggest that you arrange for the ceremony to commence around 1pm, which means the day can be relaxed and flow freely without rushing into your evening reception. You will need to contact Lancashire Registration Services directly to arrange for the registrar to attend and take care of the legalities. Please remember, any fees the registrars charge are not included in this cost.

Lancashire Registrars - Contact 0300 123 6705

Your marriage ceremony can be held in either our Garden Room or Oak Room, both enjoying stunning rural views. If the weather is kind, we can open the doors onto our terrace for an alfresco wedding that will be the envy of all of your guests.
